RECOMMENDED AIRPORT ROLE CLASSIFICATIONS

Commercial Service airports accommodate scheduled major/national or regional/commuter commercial air carrier service in addition to air cargo, business aviation, and all types of general aviation. (7 airports)

Regional Business airports support regional economic activities, connecting to state and national economies, and serve all types of general aviation aircraft. They also accommodate local business activities and various types of general aviation users. (16 airports)

Community Business airports serve a limited role in regional economies, primarily supporting community economies. They accommodate a variety of general aviation activities such as business, recreational, and personal flying. (19 airports)

Local Recreational airports serve a supplemental role in local economies, primarily accommodating recreational, personal flying, and limited local business activities. (16 airports)

Basic Service airports serve a limited role in the local economy, primarily accommodating recreational and personal flying. (17 airports)

Recommended Future Regional Business

Recommended Future Community Business