

CONSTRUCTION AHEAD – 2017

All lanes of I-15 between Fort Hall and Burns Road will re-open Sunday (June 25)

The Idaho Transportation Department has finished paving six miles of Interstate 15 between the Fort Hall Reservation Boundary and Burns Road in Blackfoot.

- All lanes of I-15 will re-open to traffic on Sunday morning.
- Crews will return this fall to rehabilitate the Fort Hall Main Canal bridges when the canal is dry.
- Construction in other areas of I-15 will continue for many months. Please continue to plan extra time for trips through eastern Idaho.

The Fort Hall to Burns project included resurfacing six miles of I-15, upgrading guardrails and improving clearance below the bridge structures at the Railroad Overpass, Fort Hall Interchange and Sheepskin Road.
