Traffic shift on Gowen Road; temporary closure of right-turn lane from Gowen Road to Micron begins Tuesday night (May 26)

May 22, 2015

On Tuesday night (May 26) traffic on Gowen Road between Federal Way and the I-84 eastbound ramps will be shifted to the north.

- Lane restrictions will be in place on Gowen Road Tuesday night from 8 p.m. to 5 a.m. as crews shift traffic.
- Motorists will use temporary pavement on the north side of Gowen Road through the summer as crews continue to widen and improve the south side of the roadway.

Changes will also be made to the intersection of Gowen Road and Federal Way on Tuesday night:

- The right-turn lane from Gowen Road onto Federal Way, heading toward Micron, will be temporarily closed for approximately a month.
- The right-turn lane from Federal Way onto Gowen Road, heading toward Lucky Peak, will be permanently removed. A dedicated right-turn lane is being constructed as part of improvements to enhance traffic flow through the intersection.
- For the next several months, motorists will use the through lane to turn right at these two areas of the intersection.
