

NEW DETAILS: June 14-17 blasting detours

July 14, 2014

Blasting will resume tonight (July 14) at the Gowen Interchange, but the road closures have changed.

- On Monday and Tuesday nights, Gowen Road will be closed between Federal Way and Eisenman Road. I-84 will be open. Click here for a map of the detour.
- On Wednesday and Thursday nights, I-84 will be closed between the Broadway and Eisenman interchanges. Gowen Road and southbound Broadway Avenue will also be closed. Click here for a map of the detour.
- On- and off-ramps will be closed intermittently each night until 5 a.m.

Blasting allows ITD to remove basalt rock from the area, making room for the new ramps and roadway. The majority of blasting will be completed this summer and the interchange will be completed by late 2015. For more information, visit <http://itd.idaho.gov/goweninterchange>.
