Overnight ramp closures at I-84, Gowen Interchange tonight through Thursday (March 3-5)

March 3, 2015

Tonight through Thursday night (March 3-5), there will be several closures of on-and off-ramps at the I-84, Gowen Interchange.

- The eastbound on-ramp at the Gowen Interchange will be closed tonight and Wednesday night (March 3 and 4).
  - Click here for a detour map.
- The westbound on- and off-ramps will be closed Thursday night (March 5).
  - Click here for a detour map.

On all three nights, the closures will begin at 8 p.m. and the ramps will reopen by 5 a.m.

The ramp closures will allow crews to place guardrail and stripe the roadway for a new traffic pattern on I-84. This work is weather dependent.
