ITD Engineer of the Year - Nomination Criteria

This award recognizes an ITD engineer who has made outstanding contributions to the Engineering profession. The nominee must be currently employed by ITD and licensed as an engineer in the State of Idaho. The nominee can be recognized for demonstrating excellence in either technical engineering or in leadership/management within the transportation industry.

Narrative: Please provide a brief narrative describing the nominee's exceptional accomplishments in the following:

- Achievement in engineering design, research, development, construction or management
- Use of innovative solutions to overcome challenges
- Advancement of the knowledge base in one of the many civil engineering disciplines
- Consistent performance at a high level of achievement
- Has made fundamental and long-term positive impacts within the Transportation industry

Entry Requirements:

- 1.) Nomination narrative is limited to 1,000 words
  - ♦ Photos included within the narrative document are permissible
- 2.) Narrative document to be double-spaced for readability
- 3.) Submit an electronic copy of the nomination narrative and nomination application
  - ♦ Documents submitted in Word or as pdfs are acceptable
  - ♦ Email all files to adam.rush@itd.idaho.gov

Judging: The winning nomination will be selected by a panel of qualified professionals from across the transportation profession. The award winner will be recognized at an Idaho Transportation Department Board meeting later this year.
