Quick Reference

permitted work shall be completed and available for final inspection within thirty days.

❖ What documents do I need to include with a permit application?

- Non-refundable application fee (please confirm the applicable amount with ITD).
- A copy of the latest deed of record which identifies proper owner and legal description of property abutting the State Highway Right-of-Way (ROW). Note. If ownership of the property changes during the permit process, a new form must be submitted with the new ownership documentation.*
- Photographs of the proposed driveway location, including one looking along the highway from the proposed location (digital photographs are acceptable).
- Plans or drawings
- If applicable, a Traffic Impact Study (TIS)
- For full details, please refer to the corresponding application form, IDAHO, or the Department website. <https://itd.idaho.gov/d6>

❖ What are some of the reasons for disapproval for a permit?

- Void Application – Once application is submitted, if the permitting process is not completed within one year because of inactivity on the applicant's part, the application shall be considered void (IDAPA 39.03.42.12).
- Denial of Application – Applications for encroachments not allowed shall be verbally denied. If the applicant insists on proceeding with the application, the non-refundable fee shall be accepted, and a permit denial issued by certified letter. Upon receipt of the denial letter, the applicant can appeal the Department's action.
