Department's first annual report video expands outreach and shares successes

BOISE - Utilizing another communication channel to expand outreach of the department's accomplishments and mission, ITD added a video component to its usual hardcopy version of the annual report.

In less than eight minutes, the annual report video summarizes the highly successful 2018 fiscal year and how the department worked to meet the safety, mobility, and economic opportunity needs of Idaho citizens.

"Normally, we print the report on paper and also provide an electronic version on the ITD website," explained ITD Director Brian Ness. "This year, we wanted to bring our success story to life in a way we never have before."
