Idaho 5311 (b)(3) Rural Transportation Assistance Program (RTAP)

The Idaho Transportation Department's Public Transportation Office is committed to advancing the Department's strategic mission of "Your Safety, Your Mobility, and Your Economic Opportunity."

The Idaho Transportation Department Public Transportation Office (ITD-PT) is responsible for administering Idaho's Rural Transportation Assistance Program (RTAP) with funding provided by the Federal Transit Administration (FTA). ITD-PT is committed to fostering a safe, mobility focused public transportation program throughout Idaho that promotes economic opportunity and growth for all of Idaho.

ITD-PT budgets the 5311(b)(3) RTAP funds on an annual basis and will offer scholarship opportunities until such funds are exhausted.

Applicant Eligibility

- Public and non-profit organizations that provide transportation services in non-urbanized areas of Idaho are eligible to apply.
- Organizations that receive or are eligible to apply for FTA Section 5310, 5311 and 5339 funds during the current federal fiscal year.

Program Eligibility

Scholarships up to $2,500 per person per training are available until the budgeted funds are exhausted. RTAP funds can be used for courses, workshops, seminars, materials, driver training(s) and conferences with subject matter applicable to rural and specialized transportation, and appropriate to the level of expertise of the person(s) attending. Note: Scholarship funds may not be used for lobbying activity, and may not be passed through to for-profit organizations under contract to Section 5310, 5311 and 5339 recipients.

- Maximum of two (2) individuals per training, workshop or conferences
- Maximum of three (3) training, workshop, or conference scholarships per individual per calendar year
- ITD Hosted trainings do not apply towards the maximums.

Allowable Expense(s)

Application Review by ITD-PT

All applications will be reviewed for organization eligibility and program applicability. Priority will be given to applications that tie to most recent ITD-PT Site Review findings, when applicable. All scholarship applications and payments are subject to final review by the RTAP Program Manager and may be deemed ineligible during the application process. Applicants will be notified of the application status within two weeks of receipt of the application.

Scholarship Reimbursement

Scholarship reimbursement payments will be made within 30 days of receipt of all proper documentation.

Receiving Reimbursement:

1. Submit the Individual Expense Form reflecting actual expenses.
2. Attach required receipts for your expenses, as identified in the Idaho RTAP Scholarship Guidelines. Meal reimbursements are made by per diem rates and do not require receipts.
3. Submit a Summary Report on the training you received and rate the training as to whether you would recommend others to attend.
4. Email your reimbursement request to: shauna.miller@itd.idaho.gov

Note: RTAP Scholarship Funds are FTA Administration Section 5311 funds, and should be recorded accordingly in your financial reporting.

For questions about application, reimbursement, or the program plan, please email: Shauna Miller, RTAP Program Manager at shauna.miller@itd.idaho.gov or call (208) 334-8533.
